Denver Area Financial Advisor Russell Porter joins TAG Advisors

Denver, CO - Russell Porter, a financial advisor specializing in employee benefits, qualified plans, and ESG investing has joined TAG Advisors. Porter is located in Denver, CO.

"The firm I was with had very little internal support for professionals in the retirement plan space" says Porter. "I wanted to find a place where there's more of a team concept, where I could work in concert with other people who work in my space. I could see that TAG Advisors has leadership in the group retirement space."

"I feel a missionary zeal to help people understand financial advice is for everybody, not just the wealthy. And the best way to get that message to the most people is through retirement plans at their workplaces. Our core purpose is to communicate to every person about how investing in a group retirement plan can build wealth. The retirement plan specialists at TAG Advisors will help me carry that out much more effectively."

"We are so pleased to have Russ on the TAG Advisors team" reports Gregory S. Raines, CEO of TAG Advisors. Advisors who can take advantage of our capabilities to thrive, like Russ will do with TAG Retire, enables him to better serve his clients."

TAG Advisors is a national community of over 370 thriving independent financial professionals across the country, with over $11 Billion in assets under advisement. The management and staff of TAG Advisors represents decades of experience in all facets of financial services.
